EXTRACT FROM THE GENERAL TARIFF CONDITIONS

(Find the latest version at www.skiamade.com/agb or at the ticket office.)

- The ski pass is person-specific and non-transferable.
- Our tariff conditions classify families as the parents and the children² and teens¹ living in the same household as at least one parent.
- Misuse of a ski pass will result in its withdrawal and termination of transport. In addition, a fine of €50 and the cost of a full-price day ticket are payable. The attempt to unlawfully transfer a ski pass to another guest is considered misuse.
- Keycard required! €3 refund upon return of the undamaged data carrier. Different regulations apply to day ticket data carriers in respective regions.
- Multi-day ski passes can be purchased and used from 3 pm of the previous day. Exception: Tauernseilbahn Haus/Ennstal.
- Each ticket holder is responsible for keeping his or her ticket safe in such a way that third parties do not have access to it.
- No compensation for forgotten or lost ski passes.
- Refunds can be given for sports injuries with a medical certificate from a local doctor / hospital and upon immediate surrender of the ski pass at the main ticket office. No refunds on long ski passes that are valid for one day or less.
- Provided that Ski amade or its member companies and their lifts are in general operation, the customer has no right to withdrawal upon adverse weather conditions, danger of avalanche, unplanned early departures, temporary disruptions, shutdowns of individual lifts or ski areas due to weather, closure of individual slopes or ski areas, overcrowding of pistes, personal illness or upon any other reason that is attributable to the customer. There is no entitlement to a refund in these cases and the customer remains obliged to pay.
- A special evening ticket is required for floodlit toboggan runs and night skiing.
- Please respect the FIS safety rules.
- A contribution towards the mountain rescue costs is payable in the event of mountain rescue after an accident on the slopes (notice to be found at ticket offices).
- Please take note of the "General Tariff Conditions" and the terms of carriage of the respective lifts (notice to be found at ticket offices and lifts).
- Information on additional ski pass offers (e.g. season and "hourly tickets") is available at the ticket offices.
- Safety notice: With the exception of the clearly marked and illuminated night pistes, all slopes are closed between 5 pm and 8 am (please observe the ski area-specific opening times). In order to offer you an unforgettable skiing experience, piste preparation and artificial snow works are carried out during these times. Beware: cables are laid out across the slopes.
- A reduced number of lifts and slopes are in operation throughout early and late season, and also when there is insufficient snow.
- With the purchase of a named ski pass, the ticket holder is agreeing to the automatic registration of personal data. This is collected and processed electronically to prevent the misuse of tickets and for customer service purposes, but is deleted no longer than three years after the last contact.
- With the purchase of a ski pass, the ticket holder is agreeing to the personal photographic recording, storage and processing of its details at the ticket offices and access points to prevent the misuse of tickets and for customer service purposes, but is deleted upon expiry of the ski pass if used in accordance with contract.
- The ticket holder also agrees that the personal data may be passed on to the Ski amade GmbH and all companies in which the ski pass is valid for the above purposes.
- A ticket purchase entitles the customer to use the ski areas covered by Ski amade. As the individual member companies operate independently, all liability for incidents arising from and during the operation and use of cable and lift facilities and slopes lies with the company in whose ski area the incident occurred.
- Errors, price alterations and misprints reserved!
